

This consolidation of ownership of the airwaves poses a grave risk to democracy. To have an informed citizenry we to have access to a variety of opinions and commentary. It is the job of the FCC to ensure that this is available to us.